Arts and Humanities
-Always the last week in January-

ZORA! Festival 2012: January 21-29, 2012 – “The Rise of Community:
The Town of Eatonville Models 125 Years of Self-Governance”

Volunteer Pledge

As a volunteer for The Association to Preserve the Eatonville Community, Inc. (P.E.C.), I agree to abide by the guidelines which will govern my participation with the 23rd Annual Zora Neale Hurston Festival of the Arts and Humanities (ZORA! Festival).

Specifically, I pledge

- To attend the scheduled volunteer meetings; and
- To learn the basic biographical information about Zora Neale Hurston.

Additionally, I agree to memorize the 3 goals of ZORA! Festival; namely,

- To celebrate the life and work of 20th century writer, folklorist and anthropologist, Zora Neale Hurston;
- To celebrate the significance of her hometown, Eatonville, Florida, known as the nation’s oldest incorporated African American municipality; and
- To celebrate the cultural contributions people of African ancestry have made to the United States and world culture.

In terms of Customer Service, I pledge

- To provide a smiling face and welcoming personality for all our guests and towards my fellow volunteers.

Lastly, I pledge

- To follow the guidelines I have received concerning those who are responsible for speaking to the media and/or making statements on behalf of the organization.
